UPTON IN WARTIME

Upton in Bloom and the Town Council are hoping to be able to create a public information board which tells the story (or part of it) of how the First and Second World Wars affected Upton and the people who lived here at the time.

We would welcome any information you might have about these two momentous events, particularly photographs and personal stories.

They can be left at the Town Council Offices in Moorland Way.

SWANN HILL

The area opposite the fish and chip shop at the top of Moorland Way pre-1945, now part of Dorchester Road, was known as Swann Hill, until the road was levelled to improve the junction with Moorland Way when it was developed.

You may have noticed that the scruffy, overgrown area behind the railings has now been tidied up—thanks to the splendid efforts of our Groundstaff - Gary and Jordan - and also planted with some 500 daffodil bulbs donated by Upton in Bloom members Irene and Stewart McKell.

Yet one more improvement to the appearance of our town!
