IMPORTANT MESSAGE REGARDING MUNICIPAL LITTER BINS

Following a recent audit of waste in litter bins, Purbeck District Council has removed a number of these from around the town as they contain both household and trade waste. Street waste bins are for general litter only. Please help us to keep our town looking clean and tidy by disposing of all our waste responsibly and in the correct way.

WOOD CHIPPINGS FOR SALE

These are available to purchase at a cost of £2.50 per large bag.

Ideal for ground cover to stifle weeds or to mulch into earth to improve the soil quality.

Payment required at the Town Council offices where you will be given a bag to go and fill from our supply.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

The Town Council were delighted to nominate Mrs Win Eaton as Lytchett Minster and Upton's Volunteer of the Year Awards hosted by Purbeck District Council recently. Well done Win, your contribution to our community is felt in so many different ways—you are a great asset to our Town!

Mrs Win Eaton being presented with her Volunteer of the Year Award by Cllr E Osmond, MBE, and watching on proudly is her ten year old grandson, Henry, and Chairman of LMUTC, Cllr Mrs June Richards.
