Community Comes Together to Commemorate the Centenary of the Commencement of World War 1

After much crossing of fingers with regard to the weather, we are pleased to report that despite a couple of minutes of drizzle, the rain moved away and we all enjoyed the event in dry, and on occasions sunny conditions

Around about 60 people joined the Town Council to commemorate the centenary of the commencement of World War 1.

Upton Infants, Upton Junior and the Yarrells School supported the event by singing World War 1 songs and readings. They were all exceptionally well behaved, and it was clear that they had all been seriously rehearsing.

The Last Post, followed by a minutes silence, then Reveille was played by a musician from the Royal Corps of Signals, in full military dress.

The event was concluded with the Yarrells Jazz Band, 'Yazz Jazz' playing everyone away with
