

Community Commemoration of the Commencement of World War 1

World War I Remembrance Commemoration.

On Friday 9th May the Town Council will be holding a short Remembrance hour outside the Library.

It will start at 10.30 and will feature World War I songs and music performed by the children of Upton Infant School choir, accompanied by musicians from Upton Junior School and some readings or poetry from pupils of Yarrells School.

Please come and support the children if you can.
More details in future editions of the Clarion.
