OLYMPIC TORCH TO PASS THROUGH LYTCHETT MINSTER AND UPTON

On 27 July 2012 the eyes of the world will be on the UK as the Olympic flame arrives to signify the start of the London 2012 Games.

The flame will make its journey from Greece arriving in the UK at Land's End on 18 May 2012, ready for the Olympic Torch Relay to begin the following day.

Representing peace, unity and friendship, the flame will start its 70-day historic journey around the UK towards the Olympic Stadium carried by over 8,000 inspirational torchbearers who have been nominated by members of the public.

On 7 November 2011 the London 2012 organisers (LOCOG) announced details of over 1,000 cities, towns and villages throughout the UK that the Olympic flame will be carried through.

The Dorset 2012 Board is proud to confirm that on 12, 13 and 14 July 2012, the Olympic flame will travel through Dorset en-route towards London.
