The Town Council Newsletter for Lytchett Minster and Upton

The Annual Assembly

The Annual Assembly is always one of the highlights of our calendar; a chance for people of the town to come together, raise questions, voice concerns, and celebrate the efforts that make Lytchett Minster and Upton a great place to live, work, pass through, and enjoy.

We presented Grant Aid totalling £4,150 to four organisations, and celebrated our "Volunteer of the Year" Awards to note the efforts of:

- Nellie Powell (Under 18 Volunteer)
- Maureen Bradshaw (Over 18 Volunteer)
- Debbie Head (Over 18 Volunteer)
- LUBCA (Community Organisation)

The meeting is a reminder of the work required to keep Lytchett Minster and Upton outstanding. It shows the power of community: that, when people take an active, conscientious, and considered approach to public discussion, we can all work together to support one another. As we look to enrich and protect our town for years to come, simply showing up is always the most important first step.
