

JOB VACANCY

WEEKEND RECREATION GROUND CARETAKER

£10.00 per hour

The Town Council is currently seeking to recruit someone to oversee the Recreation Ground and its facilities, primarily on a Saturday and Sunday with regards to the football and other sporting activities. This will be approximately 8 hours on a Saturday and 8 hours on a Sunday, September to May – although hours may vary dependant on weather/matches to be played. There may be requirements to service additional football requirements in the Spring evenings. The Caretaker will be responsible for determining pitch playing suitability and communicating this decision to relevant Team Managers and Referees. A weekend log sheet is also required to be completed.

Applicants should be able to work independently and be physically fit. Role will involve allocating pitches and cleaning changing rooms. Confidence in dealing with the general public and answering queries, in addition to dealing with the needs of the sports teams is essential. Candidates must demonstrate confidence in their ability to be able to enforce rules of the recreation ground in a non-challenging manner.

A knowledge of first aid would be advantage and the position would be subject to a DBS check.

Full on the job training will be given.
